Duxiana supports Annika Sörenstam Foundation.

Duxiana of New Jersey was a sponsor of an event for Annika Sörenstam's charity, the ANNIKA Foundation, at Fiddler's Elbow Country Club in Bedminster Township, N.J. on Oct. 14th.

The day long event included 18 holes of golf, a children's golf clinic with Annika Sorenstam, and post-round fare of locally-grown food by award-winning chefs and an auction. Hall of Fame golfer Sorenstam served as the celebrity host at this special benefit for her foundation, which teaches children the importance of living a healthy, active lifestyle through fitness and nutrition. This was the first appearance for Sorenstam as a mother. She had a baby girl, Ava, in September. Ann-Britt Paulsen, originally from Sweden, is the owner of Duxiana, which has three locations in New Jersey: Ridgewood, Red Bank and Summit.
